TAKING STOCK: A PREVIEW OF NEPC'S 26TH ANNUAL INVESTMENT CONFERENCE

The NEPC Client Conference Committee

April 2022

Boston is the place to be in May as we kick off NEPC's 26th Annual Investment Conference. This year we are pulling out all the stops given that it's our first in-person conference since 2019. We invite you to join us on May 17-18 at the Westin Copley Place as we rejoice in our togetherness and look ahead to the challenges in the investment world.

In addition to meeting your peers, including chief investment officers, investment committee members, trustees, chairpersons and directors, you will also hear from our lineup of illustrious speakers. They are experts in their field, ranging from Jeffrey Gundlach, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Investment Officer of asset manager DoubleLine; Dan Clifton, head of policy research at institutional broker-dealer Strategas Securities; to Alejandra Grindal, chief economist at independent research firm Ned Davis Research; and Bert Jacobs, co-founder and Chief Executive Optimist of lifestyle brand Life is Good.

In addition, NEPC consultants and research specialists will discuss a diverse array of investment topics, including opportunities in private markets, investment biases (and how to avoid them), emerging markets, and the implementation of diverse, equitable and inclusive practices. Also making a comeback are NEPC's optional pre-conference workshops.

So, book your room and reserve your flight! Please reach out to Sarah Winrow if you have any questions. We look forward to seeing you next month!
